
HISTORY OF THE TESTIMONY SINCE J. N. DARBY

(UNREVISED)

JT Jr.

So we should write, write things down, get them written in our hearts and write them too, get a book. Do not the brethren keep a book ... if you write something it helps so to get it in ... write down important things, it helps you to retain them. I have had a book for 40 years and write in it yet, I am still writing. I learned that from my father ... A scribe is a great matter with God.

Vol. 13: pp 105-108 (1961)

This document appears to have been compiled by a member of the Hales Branch of the Exclusive Brethren around 1990. The word 'testimony' is not used here in its usual sense of something outgoing. It is rather a history of a secretive, inward-looking branch of Brethrenism, as seen from within.

The document is not offered here for edification or as a reliable source of history. Indeed, many will read parts of it with a measure of disgust and incredulity. It is offered mainly for research into the evolution of a high-demand organization, and its psychology and sociology. Much of it can also be used as an index to Exclusive Brethren printed ministry.

The original version was duplicated with a stencil and was not machine-searchable, so I have used OCR to produce from it this digital version, which is machine-searchable.

I have left the idiosyncratic underlining and some of the spelling errors just as they are, unequal yolks and all.

The column headed "Serv." gives the initials of the minister whose teachings are being described or quoted. The probable meanings of these initials are listed in the table above, as far as I can ascertain.

Owing to the extremely litigious habits of the Brethren, I must regretfully remain anonymous.

HISTORY OF THE TESTIMONY SINCE JND'S TIME (MR. J. N. DARBY 1800-1882)

Date		Serv.	Vol.	Pages
1800	JOHN NELSON DARBY born.
1814	Mr. J. B. Stoney born.
1827	J.N.D.'s letter to Archbishop of Dublin. (Published 38 years later.) The Revelation of Christ as Head. But the Archbishop's course was ruinous -- really stopped the deliverance from popery of masses, perhaps of all in Ireland; they were leaving from 700-800 a week.	JND	LI	397
1828	J.N.D. left the Established Church. It was not the details of the sacramental and priestly system which drove me from the Establishment, deadly as they are in their nature. It was that I was looking for the body of Christ (which was not there, but perhaps in all the parish not one converted person); and collaterally, because I believed in a divinely appointed ministry. If Paul had come, he could not have preached (he had never been ordained); if a wicked ordained man, he had his title and must be recognised as a minister; the truest minister of Christ unordained could not.		JND's Biography	18
1828	J.N.D.'s paper "Notion of a Clergyman Dispensationally the Sin Against the Holy Ghost. (Published 37 years later.) It was intended to be published at the time; but the printer and publisher shewed it privately to some of the influential clergy before it was published. and I was surrounded and entreated not to publish it and gave way ... that the idea of a clergyman, that is, of a humanly appointed office, taking the place and assuming the authority of the Spirit of God, necessarily involves (in its condemnation of what the Holy Ghost does do) in the sin against the Holy Ghost: and I defy any one to show how it can be otherwise.		Notion of a Clergyman
1829	Breaking of bread commenced in Dublin (J.N.D. and three others). "Wherever two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."	AJG	Recovery & Maintenance of the Truth (RMT)	9
1833	Dr. Pusey - Ritualism. A. Wellershaus pamphlet (AW).
1834	J.B. Stoney left the Established Church and identified himself with those in separation.
1837	Mr. F. E. RAVEN born.
1845	J.N.D.'s separation at Plymouth. Refusal of Evil - clericalism. P. hindering any teachers not ready to receive N.'s views (Christ would have needed to be saved as much as we did) coming to P. JND 3 John 9, 10, that was precisely going on at P. The Lord never roused the conscience of the body till I left.	AJG	RMT	67,70 (6-83)
1847	False doctrine of B. W. Newton as to the person of Christ. Mr. Newton of Plymouth...began at a very early period to pursue a course distinct from that of the other brethren. This you may see traced from the beginning in "The Narrative of Facts," by J.N.D., also "Observations" and "Remarks on the Sufferings of the Lord Jesus"	AJG	RMT	11-28
1848	Bethesda neutrality as to the Newtonian heresy - letter of the 10 issued. The object of the paper is to vindicate the conduct

1858	of those who signed it in taking a neutral position ... we did not feel it well to be considered as identifying ourselves with either party. (Open Brethren) J.N.D. Conflict over J.N.D.'s teaching on the Sufferings of Christ ... the sufferings of Christ fell into three categories: Atoning sufferings which came upon Him from God ... Sufferings which He endured at the hands of men for righteousness' sake a) the suffering in spirit ... b) the deep anguish occasioned by the anticipation of, and the holy shrinking from, being made sin, and in that position sustaining God's unmitigated judgment of it and c) the suffering in spirit resulting from His voluntarily entering, in the sympathy of love, into the deep exercises of soul which the godly remnant of Israel will yet pass through as they realise, in the days of the great tribulation, God's governmental dealings with them in respect of their rejection of the Messiah.	AJG	RMT	84-86
1866	W. H. Dorman - The Sufferings of Christ attacked.	AW
1870	JAMES TAYLOR born.
1878-9	Mr. Cluff and his views as to " Dead to Nature " "Dead to nature" is not a scriptural expression ... is legality. We are dead "to sin"... but a new nature in relationship with the Father and with Christ, and in Him, sitting in heavenly places.	AJG	RMT	87-101
1879-81	Independence of Judgment - Kelly division. (Ryde and Dr. Cronin; Ramsgate and Mr. Wm. Kelly.) ... a general powerlessness to deal with evil. A letter of commendation from Ryde was challenged by Mr. Kelly that the meeting should not be regarded as in fellowship (because of their low state), and should not be received. This attitude was resisted by JND and others, on the ground that the Ryde (Isle of Wight) mtg. had never been disowned by brethren, and therefore a person from that meeting could not be refused on the private judgment of individual brothers. JND - Brethren had got to think of themselves as a body of people, and to say the least, less of Christ and His body. The present struggle is between intelligence and the Spirit.			102-121

1883-4	Reading and Montreal (Mr. C.E. Stuart and Mr. F. W. Grant respectively) Though the teachings in question were not identical, they both had the result of setting aside the distinctiveness and heavenly character of Christianity. Error: (S) teaching failed to recognise the complete termination judicially, in the cross of Christ, of the first man. Truth: that in Christ, God has introduced manhood of an entirely different and heavenly order, in which believers are	AJG	RMT	122-124

Let us begin by insisting that such as the heavenly one, such also are the heavenly ones," and then it is easy to see that there is an entire change of race. I am of the order of the great heavenly ONE - an hence the old order has terminated in judgment on the cross.
1884	J.T. left Ireland (age 14). Arrived in America 1888 and took up residence in New York in 1889. The following year, 1890, most of the meeting in NY was lost through a brother being allowed into fellowship (although this was opposed by J. Taylor), who undermined the saints as to FER. The bitter feelings of those opposed to FER were shown in their unseemly conduct at the Lord's supper, when Mr. Taylor and those in accord with FER le^t and broke bread in another place ... Mr. Taylor made a vow to the Lord at that time also to commit himself fully to His interests and be responsible for them in NY. He received much help from Mr. Raven.	JT	L2	413
1888	The Witney Conference re Eternal Life - not only living eternally in a happy condition of unlimited blessing and everlasting security but it means also being conformed to Christ, who is eternal life ... because I live, ye also shall live. JBS/FER	AW JT Jr.	22 34	71 74
1890	Eternal Life. Opposition to F.E.R.'s teaching as to Eternal Life and the Manhood of Christ (Bexhill & Elberfeld (the Lowe Division)). With many, whose minds were not formed by the way the truth is presented in Scripture, eternal life was regarded as no more than the assurance, through faith in Christ, of never coming into condemnation, whereas Scripture presents it, so far as its present aspect is concerned, as a portion entered into, by the Spirit ... It is enjoyed in the circle of the brethren, where love reigns ... Timothy was exhorted to "lay hold of eternal life" in contrast to desiring to be rich.	JT	LI NS12 L2	1 413
	JBS: Eternal life is not a person, but the power to enjoy what a person is. We enjoy it in Christ and by His Spirit.	AJG	RMT	130
	FER: Redemption is according and suitable to His grace. Salvation is according to His mercy
	CAC: Eternal life is according to His love, Mr. Raven sought to encourage the saints to go in for the enjoyment of their portion, and not to be content with title without possession. This is highly important, for otherwise we may be saying that we have eternal life when we are perhaps practically living after the flesh and in the world.			136-1
1890	The Manhood of Christ Concurrently with the conflict as to eternal life, considerable controversy took place on the subject of the Person of Christ and His true manhood. JBS - "God manifested in flesh" is Scripture but "perfect God	AJG	RMT	141-152

	and perfect Man" is not scripture. Satan's direct opposition is against the Word made flesh -- the "man-child" (Rev.12) from Herod's day down to this. In Christendom the pious Christians think of Christ as God and not as Man, and they read of His miracles ... to prove that He was God ... they are siding with Satan, who will tolerate any measure of religion so that the Man out of heaven is not paramount ... The Son of God became a MAN. Error: The opposers want to have two persons in one, man and God, one time to act as God, and at another to act as man. They really do not see the incarnation ... They would have Him to be a man in flesh and blood, and in a way distinct from His being God. Truth: -- whereas He is God, and He, that same Person, became a Man in flesh and blood, but He came from God, He brought everything with Him. He is a Man out of heaven. He is the Man of God's pleasure for ever; and it is only as you are of His nature and order that you could be united to Him ...
1897	Mr. J. B. Stoney went to be with the Lord (Age 83) Mr. Raven - my feeling is one without a father ... (JBS) understood the discipline of God, and no one has so much affected and influenced me in my course here, apart, in a sense from the light gained through him.	FER	LI	135

	It is so obvious from the early chapters of the Acts that in the early days of Christianity believers found in the assembly, into which they were introduced by faith in Christ and the reception of the Spirit, a sphere in which, in the practical enjoyment of eternal life, complete deliverance from the elements of the world. ... many who refused a subjective line of ministry, including one of the leaders in the opposition, were carried away at the time of the Glanton issue (3 yrs. later)	AJG	RMT	153

1909	Christ in the Midst of the Assembly Error: The suggestion that the Lord has an abiding position in the midst of the assembly whether convened or not. Truth: This tended to obscure the special privilege and blessedness of His coming to His own from time to time, according to John 14:18,23 leading to the highest form of assembly service Godward, and to weaken the sense that this privilege is dependent on suitable conditions, as is clearly indicated in John 14: 15,21,23. It also indirectly tended to obscure the special grace and favour of the abiding presence with us, in the absence of Christ, of the Comforter, the Spirit of truth, in connection with Whose presence the Lord is pleased to come, from time to time, and manifest Himself to His own. That is the ground to take: you cannot go on with evil ... Mr. Darby separated, and so altered his position as regards the others, and those with him ... 1929-33	The Sonship of Christ. ... the term "Son" here is employed by the Spirit to designate the Person who had then become Man ... But whilst the title "Son" refers to Him as Man; it is generally intended to indicate His deity rather than His humanity (1922) The relationship of Son, or Son of God, in a man is enough to denote His Person (a Person I can know and love) but what He is in the Deity is beyond my range. He dwells in light unapproachable, whom no man has seen nor can see. What I fear is the danger of undertaking to define the Lord's relationships before He became Man. 1950-59	Non-recognition of sovereignty. It was there all the time. Something else was preferred. Rejection of what's elect. The link wasn't broken from '53 to '59; the true link was there. It was a little bit overshadowed and ignored and slighted and everything else, but it was there. It was the service of a prophet that made the thing clear and delivered the brethren out of the world. 			Baptism and Matthew 28: :Bicester . -- the formula as to baptism. Some are saying that baptism to the name of the Lord Jesus is enough. If they go by the Acts, that is all it is, so you could not say it is evil to do that, or to say it. But we need to go by the Scriptures altogether, ... Matthew 28 is Scripture, and we go by all Scripture. We want these brethren to be helped, but we do not want to put them out of fellowship. I think we will get help too.
			In 1920, when the issue was raised as to the formula for dealing with evil, J.T. answered JSG's question as to which scripture was to be used, by saying "both". It is in Corinthians that we have household baptism. It is in Eph. that we have the ultimate -- God (Father, Son and Holy Spirit), Eph. 3:20.

			The Lord was forsaken, and He was forsaken because He was made sin, and that should help anybody that has to do with any relative, if sin is on them they should be abandoned ... with a person under discipline that is their position, sin is on them. It is a solemn matter to connect Christ with that. This is severe, He was forsaken. The relationship was still there but communion was broken absolutely.
